DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Applicant's cross reference information in the specification should include that the application is ----a continuation of application 09/101,131, filed 06/30/98, now U.S. patent 6,161,248 which is a 371 of PCT/97/01839, filed 08/23/97.---

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Appel (U.S. patent 3,192,551).

The patent to Appel discloses the invention as is claimed. Note in particular figures 6 and 7 (fig. 7 being a modification of fig. 6) which show a wiper blade comprised of an elongated rubber strip (46) adapted for placement against a windshield (43) and an elongated spring elastic carrying element (45) which has upper and lower sides. Said lower side is in continuous contact via bonding with a back surface of said rubber strip. A connection device (41) is employed for coupling the carrying elements with a wiper arm. Said connection device employs first means (apertures shown in fig. 5) for cooperation with a wiper arm and second means (42) for cooperating with the carrying element so as to connect the carrying element and the connection device with one another.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 1744

Claims 16 and 17 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,161,248. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patented claim dominates the application claim.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
